

World Hijab Day

World Hijab Day is an initiative to foster religious tolerance and understanding, created in 2013 by New York resident Nazma Khan. Explore resources about the hijab and experiences of Muslim women in the United States.

Key Definitions (from Merriam-Webster)

- Hijab – the traditional covering for the hair and neck that is worn by Muslim women
- Muslim – an adherent of Islam
- Islam – the religious faith of Muslims including belief in Allah as the sole deity and in Muhammad as his prophet

Explore

World Hijab Day

<https://worldhijabday.com/>

This site provides an overview of the World Hijab Day initiative, including resources and information.

“What it’s like to be Muslim in America” from Dalia Mogahed for TED2016

<https://bit.ly/2OhL7cv>

This TED talk features scholar Dalia Mogahed exploring the experiences of Muslims in the United States.

“World Hijab Day 2017” from Islam Channel

<https://bit.ly/31dy5C0>

This video news report from Islam Channel, a Muslim broadcasting network in the United Kingdom, recaps World Hijab Day 2017 in London.

“We Love Hijab” from GainPeace

<https://bit.ly/37ZH8Jv>

This brief video from GainPeace, a non-profit with a goal to address misconceptions about Islam, includes first-person perspectives from women who wear the hijab.

