Agenda

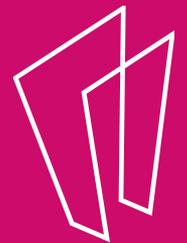

- How do you start planning a trip?
- Where do you want to go?
- How do you plan to get there?
- Where will you stay?
- What will you see, do, eat, and explore?
- Let's figure out a sample itinerary!
- Questions?

“Fernweh is a longing to be away from home, a desire to be in faraway places . . .

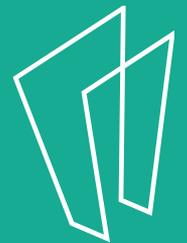

Wanderlust is rooted in the German Romantic tradition and is strongly tied to walking out in nature. Think of Caspar David Friedrich’s paintings of a lone hiker in spectacular landscapes, communing with the overwhelming greatness and intricacy of nature. Fernweh is a bit more imprecise. One simply wishes to be far away. Fernweh: the syllables sigh.”

– Teju Cole

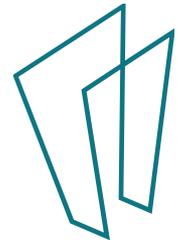

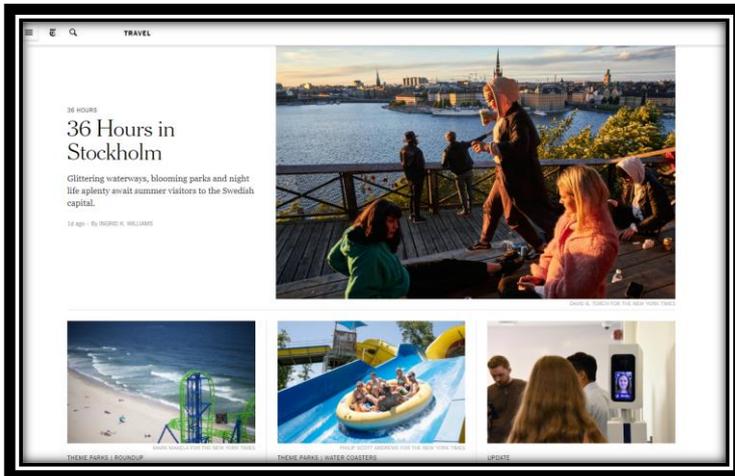

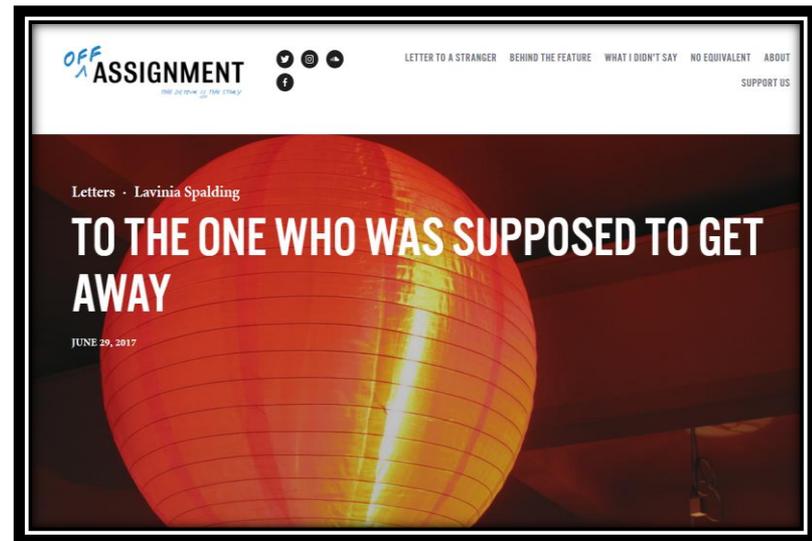

Things to consider while pre-planning

- What are some places you would like to see, and how much time off do you have?
- What is your total budget for this trip?
- What mode of transport will you use?
- Where do you plan to stay while traveling?
- What would you like to experience on your trip?

Get Inspired!

Where do you start?

How will you get there?

What are you waiting for?

Be the Travel Agent!

Marty would like to visit Iceland with his teenage son. He's on a budget, but would like to see as much as possible during a week-long visit to Iceland in September. He especially loves hiking and would like to see some hot springs. He's keen to try some authentic Icelandic dishes too.

Let's plan a trip for Marty and his son!

“For don’t we all long to return from our travels with something resonant, something lyrically alive with a place that stirs something deep within us?”

– Rebecca Norris-Webb
