

BOOMbox at Home

For Budding Builders

It's almost as if Iggy Peck was born with a T square in his hands. From the Great Sphinx to the St. Louis Arch, Iggy's passion for building is contagious. He inspired his 16 classmates to save the day with some creative problem solving. What do you think of Iggy's sculptures and buildings? Which ones do you like the most and why? Did Iggy inspire you, too? Read on for ideas on how to build a sculpture of your own!

Supplies

- print-out of template
- markers, crayons, colored pencils, or other art supplies

Instructions

- Print the template on the following page.
- Sketch out your idea for a sculpture using a pencil.
- Then, add color to your drawing with markers, crayons, colored pencils, or other art supplies.
- Share your sensational sculpture with your friends and family.

What will you create?

Want to explore more?

Learn more about Iggy Peck in this read aloud of Iggy Peck Architect (https://bit.ly/35qgPvO).

What will you learn today?

Design Your Own Sculpture!

Add an original sculpture to the park below. Feel free to cut out and use the pieces on the left, or draw from your imagination!

